FHB is committed to being intentional in ministry. Therefore we must be intentional about what we expect our ministry to produce. These following two questions will help see our potential. Desiring to fulfill our mission, vision and covenant:

1.) What do you, as part of the family at FHB, expect to be like before you meet Jesus face to face?

2.) What are the ways you hope to be involved in the ministry at FHB in order to see this result in yourself, our church and community?

Please write a quick response to the questions and put in the Communion Deacon's Fellowship offering basket. This can be anonymous.

The 20th Baptist World Congress in Hawaii is an opportunity for Baptists from all over the world to join together for a life-transforming time as collectively we listen to the Spirit of God. (July 28th to August 1st, 2010) The BWA represents a community of 105 million Baptists in more than 200 conventions and unions from more than 100 countries. Join with Dr. Peter Reid and Dr. Harry Gardner, as they fellowship with Baptists from around the world. Be a part of the group from Atlantic Canada attending this historic Congress, as part of a larger, fantastic Hawaiian experience.

Trinity Church, Saint John is hosting one of the finest church choirs in Canada, the Kings College Choir from Halifax. This extraordinary choir is directed by Paul Halley. The choir will be in Saint John on May 14th to celebrate the Ascension with a Choral Eucharist at noon and an evening concert at 7:00pm. Come and support this great choir. A free will offering will be taken.

Saint John Right to Life is holding their annual yard sale, Sat. May 15th at 352 Martello Rd. from 9am - 2pm. Items gratefully accepted, for pick up call the Centre at 657-3771.

You are invited to Germain St United Baptist Church in their 200th anniversary celebration this Victoria Day weekend in May. On Friday May 21 at 7:00 pm there will be a reception for anyone with any connection to the church. There will be singing and a few short speeches and food but the guests and conversation will be the priority of the evening. You could consider it a reunion. On Sunday, Rev Carol-Anne McGibbon will be preaching at our 10:30 worship service. Carol-Anne was the first woman ordained in Germain Street Baptist Church. She has spent her career at The Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education where she is now the Academic Dean and Director of its Graduate Theological Urban Studies Program.
